

---

2009 NASTO Annual Meeting

Funding the Future

Presentations

Monday, June 22nd

Welcome and Opening Remarks:

Presentation of AASHTO's regional America's Transportation Awards, Allen D. Biehler, AASHTO President and Secretary, Pennsylvania Department of Transportation

Opening Plenary Session: "Funding the Future:" Financial Challenges in the 21st Century

Objective: This session will review challenges in transportation, presented by limited financial resources for Federal and State initiatives.

Jack L. Schenendorf, Counsel, Covington & Burling LLP

Plenary Session 2: Funding Implementation: Challenges of Conventional Solutions

Objective: This session will present conventional solutions to transportation funding and discuss their effectiveness. Specifically, the speakers will discuss how conventional solutions have or have not been effective in their respective experience.

Jeffrey Simon, Director of Infrastructure Investment, Massachusetts Governor's Office

Next Year's NASTO Annual Meeting in Delaware

Carolann D. Wicks, NASTO President and Secretary, Delaware Department of Transportation

Keynote Luncheon

Congressman James L. Oberstar, Chairman, House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

Plenary Session 3: Funding Implementation: Innovative Solutions

Objective: This session will showcase various innovative funding solutions that have been proposed, implemented, or planned to ensure effective multimodal transportation systems.

Regina McElroy, Office of Innovative Program Delivery, Federal Highway Administration

George Schoener, Executive Director, I-95 Corridor Coalition

Workshop 1: Trends and Ideas in Federal Aid and Non-Federal Aid for Highway, Bridges, and Tunnels

Kathleen Penney, Chief Engineer, District of Columbia Department of Transportation

Workshop 2: Trends and Ideas in Federal Aid and Non-Federal Aid for Rail

Christopher Clement, Deputy Commissioner, New Hampshire Department of Transportation

Jennifer W. Macdonald, Assistant Vice President, Government Affairs, Association of American Railroads

Workshop 3: Trends and Ideas in Public/Private Partnerships for Rail

Jennifer W. Macdonald, Assistant Vice President, Government Affairs, Association of American Railroads

Workshop 4: Trends and Ideas in Public/Private Partnerships for Highway, Bridges, and Tunnels

Kathleen Penney, Chief Engineer, District of Columbia Department of Transportation

Tuesday, June 23rd

Plenary Session 4: Funding Management: ARRA Funding, Compliance & Oversight

Objective: This session will examine how various states are implementing spending plans for ARRA funded projects and monitoring and reporting techniques.

Sam Sleiman, Director of Capital Programs & Environmental Affairs, Massport

Jack Basso, Director of Program Finance and Management, AASHTO